We have always believed in the transformational power of story, and the young adults in our program are ready to use their stories to create change in their local communities in Ghana. Now that they have graduated from college, they will use their skills, testimonies, and hearts for service to bring support to communities that need it most. By partnering with local organizations to provide training and supplies for critically-needed areas, like water purification, reproductive health, and vocational opportunities, our Agents of Change will create positive impacts for years to come. In 2024, Agents of Change served over 200 members in communities throughout Ghana.
